

James McEntee – A “Happy Birthday” message

James P. McEntee, Sr. 4-9-31 - 9-13-04 Happy Birthday Jim, Dad, Grandpa. We miss you very much each day. You now share your Birthday with your granddaughters Megan and Ava. We continue to celebrate you with them.

We are continuing your legacy by giving scholarships to deserving Community College Students who have been accepted into four year colleges. This Friday, April 12th will be our second annual Fundraiser at MACLA. We plan to give 6 scholarships this year.

We love you and we continue to be inspired by your example to respect all persons and to work for the rights of all. We love you.

Ann, your children, your grandchildren and your great-grandchildren.
