

From: J. Dennis McQuaid, R'59

Sent: Saturday, January 08, 2011

Dear Classmates,

In reading the Winter 2010 edition of the "Patrician", the magazine from St. Patrick's Seminary, I noticed in the "In Memoriam" section that our classmate John Leipelt died last April. I was unaware that he had died and surmised that many of you would want to know. I remember John as a quiet, unassuming good guy.

I found the following obituary:

Leipelt, John

Peninsula Educator

1937 - 2010

April 25, 2010

John Charles Leipelt Sr. Peninsula Educator passed away on April 20, 2010. A native San Franciscan born Feb. 2, 1937 to Wilhelmina Gross and Sigmar Leipelt. Reared in Pacifica, a graduate of Riordan HS and USF '60.

John taught Social Studies at Woodside HS in Redwood City for 37 yrs. Survived by his wife Karin Morsette Leipelt, his 6 children and 10 grandchildren. Music touched his soul!

Vigil service Wed. April 28, 7pm and Funeral Mass Thurs. April 29, 11am at Church of the Resurrection 725 Cascade Ave Sunnyvale. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Am Heart Assn., Am Diabetes Assn. or charity of your choice.

LIMA & CAMPAGNA Sunnyvale Mortuary,
1315 Hollenbeck Ave. Sunnyvale, CA 94087.

Published in San Jose Mercury News/San Mateo County Times on April 25, 2010

Requiescat in pace.

Dennis